

Ośrodek Studiów Amerykańskich
ma przyjemność zaprosić nagościnnie wykład

Elahe Haschemi Yekani, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

The Spectacle of the 'Self': White Masculinity in Photography

16 października, godz. 17:00, sala 317.

Dr. des. Elahe Haschemi Yekani studied English and American Studies as well as Theatre Studies at Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin and the University of Westminster, London. She has completed her PhD in 2009 with a thesis on The Privilege of Crisis which deals with narratives of colonial and postcolonial masculinities. Currently, she works as a Research Assistant at the Department for English and American Studies at Humboldt University, Berlin. From 2005-2007 she was a scholarship holder at the 'Graduate Research Group' "Gender as a Category of Knowledge" funded by the German Research Foundation.

Publications include: Quer durch die Geisteswissenschaften. Perspektiven der Queer Theory (ed. with B. Michaelis, Berlin 2005); Erlöser. Figurationen männlicher Hegemonie (ed. with S. Glawion and J. Husmann-Kastein, Bielefeld 2007).

American Studies Center has the pleasure to announce a guest lecture by

Elahe Haschemi Yekani, Humboldt University Berlin

The Spectacle of the 'Self': White Masculinity in Photography

October 16, 2009 at 5 p.m., room 317.