

Dr. Hasrat Arjjumend is the Director at The Grassroots Institute (Canada/India), Mitacs Elevate Fellow at Université de Montréal Faculté de Droit, and associated with, in honorary capacity, the Centre for International Sustainable Development Law (CISDL), McGill University Faculty of Law, Montreal (Canada) as Senior Fellow, and Yaroslav Mudryi National Law University of Ukraine, Kharkiv as Visiting Fellow. He is also associated as part-time Senior Agroecology Specialist with Earth Alive Clean Technologies Inc., Québec (Canada). He possesses 26 years experience in research, training, teaching, field action and organizational management, dealing within multidisciplinary areas of Environment, Natural Resources, Governance, and Indigenous Rights. His current areas of academic & action interests include: Indigenous & Community Conserved Areas and Policies; Governance of Natural Resources; Nagoya Protocol and National ABS Laws; Resource Rights of Indigenous People; Traditional Knowledge and Indigenous Foods; Governance of Grazing Commons; Rangeland Ecosystems and Pastoral Livelihoods; Water & Wetlands Conservation Policies. He can be contacted at: harjjumend@gmail.com, hasrat.arjjumend@umontreal.ca